

Ethics & Law ~ 2 Hours
Learning Objectives
Presented by: David H. Hofheimer, DC, Esq.
Live in Northern California & Online

Ethics & Law:

1st hour Objective: Attendees will be made aware of the rules and regulations discussed in the first hour of material on this subject, realize what needs to be done in given situations so as to be compliant with the Chiropractic Board, and learn to think first and avoid potential problems. These first hour topics include address and name changes, proper conduct in chiropractic offices, legal versus illegal practice, proper advertising, compliance with investigator's authority, etc.

Chiropractic Law - Complying with Current State Board Rules and the Initiative Act - 1st hour -

- address changes
- investigator's authority
- display of license
- name changes
- D.C. title
- advertisements
- specialties only recognized by the ACA or the ICA
- illegal practice
- ownership of a D.C. practice
- inducing a student in illegal practice
- responsibility for conduct on premises

2nd hour Objective:

Attendees will be made aware of the rules and regulations discussed in the second hour of material on this subject, realize what needs to be done in given situations so as to be compliant with the Chiropractic Board, and learn to think first and avoid potential problems. These second hour topics include the broad area of unprofessional conduct with many subareas such as negligence, competence, fraud, etc. as well as proper record keeping, use of free or discounted services, and avoiding sexual misconduct.

Chiropractic Law - Complying with Current State Board Rules and the Initiative Act - 2nd hour -

- unprofessional conduct -
 - gross negligence
 - repeated negligence
 - incompetence
 - clearly excessive diagnosis and treatment
 - conduct endangering health, safety, and welfare
 - conviction of crimes -
 - moral turpitude, dishonesty, physical violence, corruption
 - dispensing/administering narcotics, dangerous drugs, or controlled substances
 - conviction of two or more drug/alcohol crimes
 - false signing
 - any fraud or misrepresentation
 - cappers/steerers
 - unauthorized disclosure
 - insurance deductibles and co-pays
- chiropractic referral services
- records
- free or discount services
- false names
- sexual harassment

