Tech Issue Solutions

Your Zoom crashes: stay calm and go to:
backtochiropractic.net and click on the Zoom Link again.

Our Zoom crashes: stay on Zoom and we'll be back ASAP.
We have co-hosts securing the meeting.

Attendance verification crashes: everyone must keep track of the answers with pen and paper. If the attendance verification crashes don't keep trying to get it to work during class, it's too stressful! We'll repost the link at the end of class and you'll be able to complete the attendance verification and still get credit as long as you have written down the correct answers.

For class credit and your certificate, you MUST:

Be logged into Zoom the entire time.

Start & finish the attendance verification as instructed.

No Credit if:

Starting late, NOT knowing there was attendance verification or asking for answers at the end of class.

Don't interrupt class with:

“I missed the last question.” That’s the point, you are supposed to be paying attention, so just guess and move on, you can miss a few.

If you’re having issues call our tech support:
Phone number will be in chat room.

WARNING:

The Board does not allow taking an online class while taking a ZOOM class.

Doing so will result in

NO CREDIT!!!!
